SUBJECT: DEMARCHE ON SHARM AL-SHEIKH SUMMIT: JORDAN

REF: STATE 141247

Classified By: CDA David Hale for Reasons 1.4 (b), (d)

(C) Charge delivered reftel demarche July 31 to FM Qasrawi. Qasrawi replied that he was leaving for Egypt the morning of August 1 to meet with other foreign ministers prior to the summit, and that he understood the summit's limited agenda would address three subjects: terrorism, Iraq and the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. He remarked that he did not know what issues would be raised with respect to Iraq, but that he understood that peace process discussions would focus on Gaza disengagement. As Qasrawi expected substantive talks at the summit to be relatively brief (i.e., "a few hours"), he doubted that there would be time for debate on either the UN Comprehensive Convention on International Terrorism or the issue of MDA membership in the International Red Cross/Crescent Movement. Jordan's summit delegation had not yet been decided.
